

GAME ADVISOR

If you have a passion for casual games, are very data driven and good at coaching partners, we'd love to hear from you!

About Us:

Storms is imagined and built by an international team of veterans from the gaming and tech industries, and has been secretly incubated by the largest telecommunication groups in Asia: Singtel (Singapore), SK Telecom (South Korea), and AIS (Thailand).

About the Role:

We are looking for a Game Advisor to join the Publishing team. Reporting to the Chief Growth Officer, you will support the team throughout the games acquisition process, from identifying potential candidate games all the way to the games' release and live phases.

What you will do:

- Help source and review game candidates to publish
- Analyze KPIs for given games to determine their health and publishing potential
- Build trust relationships and work closely with multiple game developers in the region to provide game design recommendations to improve retention and monetization of games
- Supervise game testing and iterations to get games ready to launch
- Identify market trends and keep an eye on competitive intelligence

What you have:

- 5+ years of experience in the tech/gaming/digital marketing industry
- Familiar with mobile apps/games development
- Familiar with game design fundamentals, either as a professional or an avid gamer
- Able to prioritise and multi-task in a fast-paced environment
- Highly organized, autonomous and detail orientated
- Highly comfortable with numbers, data and logical thinking
- Incredible coaching and interpersonal skills
- Passionate about mobile games

Bonus Points:

- Previous experience in Game Monetization or Economy
- Experience with Firebase, Google Dev Console and User Acquisition tools
- Interest in game development or experience working on games

At Storms, we believe that everyone has something to contribute, and we welcome people from all backgrounds who are looking to enable a powerful and inclusive gaming community. If you have the passion, curiosity and collaboration spirit, join us in getting better together and let's STORM the gaming world.

Note to Recruitment Agencies: Storms is currently only reviewing resumes from agencies we have partnered with, and have engaged specifically for the role. Storms will not be responsible for payment of recruitment fees for hiring candidates whose resumes were submitted to our employees without Storms' prior approval.
